

Education Bachelor Degree of Fine Arts in Graphic Design + Bachelor of Graphic Design

Rhode Island School of Design
2008

NASA - sponsored studio

Part of a small group of students generating ideas to re-design the NASA STD 3000 human standards manual, both printed and web versions.
Fall 2007

French Baccalaureat with International Option - Social and Economical Sciences

Lycee International de Sevres, France
Capstone Thesis: The economic and Social Repercussions of the Development of Art Nouveau Through Europe
Cambridge Proficiency: Certification for Teaching English in Developing Countries
1999 - 2003

Experience Corporate Communications Design Intern - Corning Incorporated

Created brand-compliant posters, newsletters and brochures, and web-banners as well as event photography.
Summer 2008

Intern / Assistant - Rosenworld

Redesigned the web navigation for Laurie Rosenwald, freelance illustrator/designer, making future expansion easier and more logical; other duties included preparation of illustrations for use as stock imagery, archiving work, and general computer assistance.
Winter 2007

Rhode Island School of Design

Teaching Assistant

Assisted in teaching an introductory graphic design course structured in three-week long workshops. Tasks included helping students with assignments, teaching sections of the workshop and assisting teacher with grading.
Fall 2007

Type Shop Monitor

Duties included instructing in studio procedures and assisting students in solving technical difficulties, identifying and redistributing wood and metal type, studio maintenance.
2006 - 2008

Student Art Sale

Sold handmade sketchbooks, journals and jewelry.
2006 - 2008

Resident Assistant

Responsible for residents on a 24-hour basis, enforced rules and curfews, managed activities and emergencies.
2004 - 2008

Skills Computer - Macintosh and PC

Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign, iMovie, iDVD, DVD Studio Pro, Microsoft Office

Craft

Hand-crafted books and boxes, handmade and decorative papers, letterpress, knitting, sewing, cooking

Language

Fluent in English and French
Conversational German